Fellowships Given by Nehru Memorial Museum and Library

4519. SHRI K.R. MALKANI: Will the Minister of HUMAN RESOURCE DEVELOPMENT be pleased to state:

(a) whether the Nehru Memorial Museum and Library is giving some fellowships every year;

(b) if so, the number of such fellows and their emoluments and the total expenditure on this scheme, so far;

(c) whether it is a fact that fellowships for three years are routinely extended to five years; and

(d) whether it is a fact that any monograms or books produced by these fellows become their property and not that of the Organisation?

THE MINISTER OF HUMAN RESOURCE DEVELOPMENT (SHRI S.R. BOMMAI): (a) No, Sir. Fellowships are awarded only when vacancies occur in the Research Projects.

(b) Under the research Projects, 73 fellowships have been awarded so far by the Nehru Museum. There are three levels of these fellowships, viz. Professorial Fellow/Senior Fellow (Rs. 4500—7300); Fellow (Rs. 3700—5700); and Junior Fellow (Rs. 2200—4000). They are paid fellowship amount plus admissible allowances thereon. The total amount incurred on these fellowships since the inception of the scheme is Rs. 2,00,45,922.09 as on 31 March, 1997.

(c) No, Sir. extension of fellowship beyond three years is granted by the Executive Council, only in deserving cases, on the bassis of the recommendation of the experts to whom the scholar's request is referred for opinion.

(d) If a fellow publishes his book through his own initiative, then the copyright of the book is vested in him and not in the Nehru Museum.
